Sir,

The present application meets the requirements for RCE under 37 CFR 1.114 inasmuch as the prosecution in the present application is closed (a Final Rejection has been issued and was mailed February 23, 2004). This paper constitutes a submission as required under RCE practice. Fees for the RCE and this submission, as well as an extension of time fee, are also provided.

Applicants respectfully request that prosecution in the present application be reopened and continued, the following requested changes to the claims be made, and that the included REMARKS be taken into consideration in arriving at the conclusion that the invention as now claimed defines patentably over the cited art.
